LINER NEW YORK HITS MINE OFF ENGLAND

Vessel Stays Afloat and Docks Under Own Steam—All Passengers Safe—Congress May Balk on Some of President's War Plans.

Washington, April 10. — American liner New York struck a mine last night while outside Liverpool bar, but her passengers are safe and she is now entering dock, according to a state department cablegram today.

New York is a steel screw steamer of 10,798 tons, built in 1885 by J. and G. Thompson of Glasgow, and owned by International Mercantile Marine Co. (the American lines). She is registered at port of New York.

New York was third armed passenger ship of American line to sail. St. Louis, the first, returned yesterday. St. Paul is now on the other side.

Washington. — American steamer Seward has been torpedoed and sunk
